3. C/CD				I do not believe OMS has the manpower or time to follow the exhibit around 15 cities in the U.S. While it is flattering to believe the exhibit will (or has improved) improve the Agency's image, I believe others will have to carry some of the freight. I suggest OMS restrict itself to a limited number of actual medical meetings in terms of additional display.

Our Contribution to Education on Drug Abuse Should Remain in the Realm of Peer Group (Medical Societies etc) and With Our People (Employees and Dependents)

The Over All Responsibility for Symposia and Exhibits on Drug Abuse is With Dr. Jerome Jaffe, Director, Office of Drug Abuse + Prevention. He Is Directly Responsible to the White House for this Problem. In Fact This Proposal Must be Coordinated With His Office before It Could be Effected.

I Am Not in Favor of Nationwide Exposure of the CIA Drug Abuse Exhibit as a Public Relations Item
